

Professional Development

24/7 relevant professional development opportunities and resources can be found here. There are online courses for all levels of users. Just in time PD comes to you in the form of short videos like ActivTips and Teacher features. For more in-depth conversations about technology and education you can check out the Thought Leaders Series of podcasts.

Store

Promethean is reaching out to some of the great educational publication houses and they have in turn created content for you to use on the ActivBoard. These resources can be downloaded for a fee.

Support

Looking for technical support for your software and hardware? Check out the Support section of Promethean Planet. Software upgrades and the latest drivers for your hardware can be found here.

The image shows a web interface for logging in or registering. At the top, there's a 'Login' section with two input fields: 'Username or Email' and 'Password'. Below these fields are two buttons: a green 'Sign In' button and a blue 'Register' button. Under the buttons is a link that says 'Forgot Your ID or Password?'. At the bottom of the login section is a blue button that says 'Sign up - It's Free!'. Below the login section, there are three statistics displayed in a light blue box: 'Resources' with a magnifying glass icon and the number '34,636', 'Downloads' with a green download arrow icon and the number '15,283,463', and 'Members' with a group of people icon and the number '999,816'.

To register simply click on the register button located on the right hand side of the web page.

You will be prompted to enter a user name, password, and an email address. Don't worry if you don't have a membership code—you don't need one to join the planet!

Review your information and click on the Register Now button.
